

THE INVENTION OF TV

Structer

Wordbank / Unknow-Words

Paul-Nipkow

John Logie Baird

Nipkow-Disk

The first real televsion set (1925)

The first tv-program

Why was the TV important?

Other important facts

End

Wordbank / Unknown words

EXTINGUISHERS – LÖSCHER

E.G. – BEISPIEL
(BSP ./ BSPW.)

ACCESS – ZUGANG

Paul Nipkow

Name: Paul Nipkow

Born: 22. 08. 1860 (Poland)

Died: 24. 08. 1940 (Germany)

Paul Nipkow invented the Nipkow disk.

John Logie Baird

Name: John Logie Baird

Born: 13. 08. 1888 (Schottland)

Died: 14. 06. 1946 (England)

John Logie Baird demonstrated 1925 the first working television

NIPKOW-DISK

(from Paul Nipkow)

- Invented on January 15, 1884
- Had 24 extinguishers
- Could take pictures in light / dark

The first real television (1925)

- John Logie Baird demonstrated 1925 the first working television.
- The TV showed moving black and white images

The first TV. used a mechanical system.

The first TV program

Im Jahre 1928

The name of the programm was
W2XWS in NewYork
(USA)

Showed simple pictures e.g. a man and a doll

Why was the TV important?

INFORMED PEOPLE AROUND THE WORLD

OR FOR ENTERTAINMENT, AND ANOTHER THINGS

Other important facts

The first television weighed 20 kg

In 2023, almost 90% of the world's population had access to television.